

Nimoveri Cloud & IT: Your IT Services Provider

DELIVERING AN ALL-INCLUSIVE, NO HIDDEN COST IT SUPPORT SERVICE TO KEEP YOUR BUSINESS UP AND RUNNING

Nimoveri is an all-inclusive IT Support provider based in Farnham. Our team of experienced IT Support professionals are on hand to ensure technology enables your business and frees your users to focus on their day jobs. Taking on the role of your in-house IT team we will keep your critical services running and recommend the most appropriate security and productivity solutions for your business “ Since our first engagement, Nimoveri have assisted with day to day issues and helped to define our long term IT strategy. ”

Rick Hayman, MediMark Scientific.

Our end user support services address the day to day queries raised by users whilst our strategy of bundling best of breed services from recognised service providers ensures your company is supported and protected by the best in the business.

Using the four pillars of IT required by business today; secure, empower, connect and manage, we will work with you to identify the IT services you need to run your business.
